PLEASE TICK (✓) THE RELEVANT BOX

- A) NON-U.S. TAXPAYER
- B) U.S. TAXPAYER*
- C) ONE OR MORE JOINT APPLICANTS IS A U.S. TAXPAYER
- D) NON-U.S. TAXPAYER HOLDING SHARES ON BEHALF OF A U.S. TAXPAYER

If B, C or D has been ticked then each U.S. taxpayer must complete and sign IRS Form W-9 to certify their tax identification number. The form can be downloaded from www.irs.com. Failure to submit a completed IRS Form W-9 (where applicable) will result in a delay in the settling of redemption/dividend proceeds (no interest will accrue).

*“U.S. Taxpayer” is defined to include a U.S. citizen or resident alien of the United States (as defined for United States federal income tax purposes); any entity treated as a partnership or corporation for U.S. tax purposes that is created or organised in, or under the laws of, the United States or any state thereof (including the District of Columbia); any other partnership that is treated as a U.S. Taxpayer under U.S. Treasury Department regulations; any estate, the income of which is subject to U.S. income taxation regardless of source; and any trust over whose administration a court within the United States has primary supervision and all substantial decisions of which are under the control of one or more U.S. fiduciaries. Persons who have lost their U.S. citizenship and who live outside the United States may nonetheless, in some circumstances, be treated as U.S. Taxpayers.

An investor may be a “U.S. Taxpayer” but not a “U.S. Person”. For example, an individual who is a U.S. citizen residing outside of the United States is not a “U.S. Person” but is a “U.S. Taxpayer”.

U.S. Taxpayers will be required to furnish the Administrator with a properly executed IRS Form W-9. Amounts paid to Unitholders who are U.S. Taxpayers as a distribution from the Fund, or as gross proceeds from a redemption of Shares, will generally be reported to Unitholders who are U.S. Taxpayers and the IRS on an IRS Form 1099 (except as otherwise noted below). Failure to provide an appropriate and properly executed IRS Form W-9 (for Unitholders who are U.S. Taxpayers) may subject such Unitholders to backup withholding tax. Backup withholding tax is not an additional tax. Any amounts withheld may be credited against such Unitholders’ U.S. federal income tax liability.

Tax exempt entities, corporations, non-U.S. Unitholders and certain other categories of Unitholders generally will not be subject to reporting on IRS Form 1099 or backup withholding, provided that, in the case of tax exempt entities and corporations such Unitholders furnish the Administrator with an appropriate and properly executed IRS Form W-9 certifying as to their tax exempt status.

The disclosure of personal data to the third parties set out above will, to the extent necessary to perform the Services, involve the transfer of data to the USA and other jurisdictions outside the European Economic Area ("EEA") in accordance with the requirements of the GDPR. Such countries may not have the same data protection laws as your jurisdiction.

Where such countries are not recognised as having an adequate level of data protection by the European Commission, the ICAV has, or has authorised the Administrator as its agent, to put in place Standard Contractual Clauses with relevant parties to whom personal data will be transferred.

Please contact the Administrator for copies of the Standard Contractual Clauses that have been entered into on behalf of the ICAV by the ICAV and/or the Administrator and details of other safeguards that have been put in place.

Retention Period

The ICAV and the Administrator will retain your personal data for as long as required for the performance of the Services or for a longer period, depending on whether additional legal/regulatory obligations mandate that the ICAV retains your personal data.

Data Subject Rights

You have the following rights, in certain circumstances, in relation to your personal data:

- Request access to your personal data (commonly known as a "data subject access request"). This enables you to receive a copy of the personal data we hold about you and to check that we are lawfully processing it.
- Request correction of the personal data that we hold about you. This enables you to have any incomplete or inaccurate information we hold about you corrected; Right to restrict the use of your personal data (in certain specific circumstances).
- Request erasure of your personal data. This enables you to ask us to delete or remove personal data where there is no good reason for us continuing to process it. You also have the right to ask us to delete or remove your personal data where you have exercised your right to object to processing (see below); Right to object to processing of your personal data (in certain specific circumstances including in instances where we rely on our legitimate interests).

- Object to processing of your personal data where we are relying on a legitimate interest (or those of a third party) and there is something about your particular situation which makes you want to object to processing on this ground. You also have the right to object where we are processing your personal data for direct marketing purposes.
- Request the restriction of processing of your personal data. This enables you to ask us to suspend the processing of personal data about you, for example if you want us to establish its accuracy or the reason for processing it.
- Request the transfer of your personal data to another party.

We will respond to your request in writing, or orally if requested, as soon as practicable and in any event not more than within one month after of receipt of your request. In exceptional cases, we may extend this period by two months and we will tell you why. We may request proof of identification to verify your request. For more details in relation to your rights, including how to exercise them, please see our full privacy policy or contact us – refer to the “Contacting us” details below.

We may also seek your consent for the processing of your personal data for specific purposes. Where we do so, and where you give consent, you have the right to subsequently withdraw that consent at any time (by contacting us using the details below).

You have the right to lodge a complaint, if you consider that the processing of personal data relating to you carried out by the ICAV or its service providers infringes the GDPR:

- with the supervisory authority in the EU Member State of your habitual residence or place of work or in the place of the alleged infringement; or
- where you are, or represent, an Investor in a ICAV authorised in Ireland, with the Irish Data Protection Commission, contactable at 21 Fitzwilliam Square South, Dublin 2, D02 RD28, Ireland, or +353 (0)761 104 800.

Consequences of not Providing Required Data

Where the ICAV or the Administrator requires your personal data to comply with anti-money laundering or other legal and/or regulatory requirements, failure to provide this information means the ICAV may not be able to accept you as an investor in the ICAV and/or may be unable to process, or release your investment in the ICAV. This may result in the ICAV terminating its relationship with you. We will tell you when we ask for your information whether it is a statutory or contractual requirement to give us the information and the consequences of not providing this information.
